The report as a whole however, should belt the market as a well reduce crop estimates to an average of ar usen to 50,000 bales, and on a consumption that of 10.80,000 bales there will hardly be enough to go around. We hard had several cars of slight decilines and the market has raked considerable religing of furnes, and also much spot cotton without any loss in the praise of consumers shouling it to be in a rather firm position. The built crowd in New Orleans are we reduce standing behind their runs as that market does not show any signs of undivisions, the premium over New York in reasons daily. We can only restorate guit remore removes and say that builting out ten at the per pound is not often a remainerative basiness, but this is an exceptional suson and with stocks decreasing at all trade centers manipulation can accomplish what legitimate conditious may not warring.

Thos. L. Ross is the pioneer real estate dealer of Topeka, Kan. He has been in business 27 years, and in that time has sold more land than all the dealers together who are now in business there, located in Topeka in 1873 and witnessed its growth from a town of a few thousand inhabitants to its present size.

THOS. L. BOSS.

One would never suspect from his appearance that Mr. Ross is nearly 77 years of age. He is wonderfully active and tarely misses a day from his office. Mr. Ross is a Mason and a member of the First Presbyterian church. He was a sufferer from dyspepsia until he heard

New Orleans Futures Active.

New Orleans April 14 Spot cetton was in moderate demand, although the weather conditions militated somewhat against the usual volume of business. Sales 3000 hales, including 500 to arrive.

The market for future cotton showed only moderate activity. The first figures were lightly over Saturday's closing, but the trading level was about unchanged to slightly under. Some selling took prices about 3 points under the lest figures of Saturday, where there was a halt, and only the most mesager business followed, the market at the close being not even to 2 points lower than Saturday's closing figures.
